

From Our Pastor

“A Duke named Raynald III, lived during the fourteenth century. He lived a life of indulgence and was extremely overweight. In fact, he was commonly called by his Latin nickname, Crassus, which means “fat.”

After a violent quarrel, Raynald's younger brother, Edward, led a successful revolt against him. Edward captured Raynald but did not kill him. Instead he built a room around him in the Nieuwkerk Castle and promised him he could regain freedom as soon as he was able to leave the room.

This would not have been difficult for most people since the room had several windows and a door of near-normal size, and none was locked or barred. The problem was Raynald's size. To regain freedom, he needed to lose weight. But Edward knew his older brother, and each day he sent him a variety of delicious foods. Instead of dieting his way to freedom, Raynald grew bigger. He stayed in that room for ten years, till his brother died in battle. But by then his health was so ruined that he died within a year, a prisoner of his own appetite.

Many men and women today are prisoners to their appetite for lust. Like Raynald, they look free, maybe even happy. They're doing what they want. They're doing what feels good. But the sad truth is that every bite of lust's delicacies only makes them more of a prisoner. When we indulge in a life of sin and do whatever feels good, we're not free. We are slaves to our own appetite." This is an excerpt taken from Joshua Harris's book entitled, "Not Even a Hint."

Isn't this a sad story? How many people today are prisoners to their own lust? There is lust for things, power, popularity, acceptance, sex and many, many other things. We are enslaved to our own appetites and it seems as if there is no freedom from it. We are told the "BIG" lie that things will and cannot change for us. This is the way life will be forever. Day, after day we are controlled by that mindset that says life will always be like this. We can never be free and things will never be any different.

There are two things we must remember and ACT upon. Number one, Jesus's victory at the cross is strong enough to break the chains that bind us and number two, His grace is sufficient enough to sustain us on a daily basis. When Jesus said, "it is finished," He was not just referring to victory over the penalty of sin but also to the power of sin.

Ask God to appropriate the truths of the work of Christ on the cross to your life that you might experience freedom from of the enslavements of this world. God's desire is for you and I to be free from the power of sin. When Jesus said in John 10:10, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" He is not just referring to having a "Happy life but also a Holy life." Romans chapter 6 gives us much insight as to the power that is available to us to experience freedom.

Secondly, Paul said in 1 Corinthians 6:12, “All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.” Paul understood what it meant to be exposed to all types of things in life but He would not allow himself to be controlled by any of it. He knew that God’s grace was there for the claiming and that he could walk in victory on a daily basis.

Christian there is “no” legitimate reason for you and I to be controlled by the LUST of our flesh. Jesus said in John 8:32, “and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

In order for sheep to receive the care they need, they must abandon their individual wandering. They trust and follow their shepherd's direction rather than their own. Lifewise, as followers of Jesus, we must release our individual agendas, symbolized by the words written on the sheep. This holds true for all believers, whether our mission field is next door or around the world. Realize that release frees us from sin into peace with the Savior of the world, Jesus Christ.

Remember, the last date to return Baby Bottles for Baby Bottle Boomerang is June 19! Please join us in supporting this important cause!

Thank you for letting us use the church for our ceremony and reception, thank you for the wonderful wedding shower, and thank you for attending our wedding and your many gifts, blessings, and prayers. This is a time we will treasure for the rest of our lives together and we appreciate having such a wonderful church family that includes many married couples we can look up to. Please remember us in your prayers as we face the daily challenges we are about to encounter as a newly married couple.

With love,

Jonathan & Kimberly Smoot

I would like to thank Preacher, each and everyone of you, for your love and concern for me while I was sick. All of the phone calls, text messages, food, and hard work you have done for me. Taking me to the doctor and getting my medicine. I thank God for all my family and friends at Church; you sure are special people to me. Please continue to pray for me. Hope to see all of you soon. God is so good!

Welcome to Ocean Commotion!

Every day, our kids are challenged to stand for God in their schools, among their friends, in our culture . . .

Noah experienced the same challenges during the time of the great Flood thousands of years ago. Yet, by God's grace, he was able to Stand for God, Obey God, Trust God, Thank God, and Fear God . . . no matter what. The biggest watery catastrophe the world has ever known happened during his lifetime. But through it all, Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

During our Vacation Bible School program, kids will dive deep into the account of Noah and the Flood from the book of Genesis! They'll learn to apply the spiritual lessons from Noah's life to their own. And, along the way, they'll uncover earthly lessons from the Flood: how all the animals fit on the Ark, how the Flood covered the whole Earth, and how we can still see the effects of this Flood today. They'll also learn that the flood legends from around the world are based on the true account in Genesis!

We have classes for everyone! See our list below to find your best fit!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

June 2016 ... Sunday School Classes Moved and Renovated!

Spares & Pairs...

Donnie Moore & Karle Byrd lead our Spares & Pairs class. Both are faithful to teach God's word each week and both go above and beyond in caring for their students outside of the classroom. This group targets ages 45—64. They are a close group of brothers & sisters who enjoy good fellowship and unity of spirit. The members of this class are very active in serving throughout our church. You will be blessed if you visit this class!

Spare & Pairs has met in our fellowship hall for years where they were constantly setting up and taking down their tables and chairs due to sharing the space with other groups/activities. Recently they moved upstairs to our main level in a more permanent classroom.

THANK YOU to KARLE BYRD, DONNIE MOORE, LEON HAYNES, GROVER HAYNES, DARREN CONNER, PAIGE CONNER, JULIE RAGSDALE AND PASTOR TERRY for your part in the renovation of Busy Bees...

Our Busy Bees classroom has also received a much needed “refresh!” Paint, curtains, new extra large corkboard for artwork & framed flannel board for Bible story time. THANK YOU to LIZ POWELL, LEON HAYNES, GROVER HAYNES, PAIGE CONNER and DARREN CONNER for your help with this space.

Lori Matherly & Holly Munoz lead this class of K—2nd graders. They would love to welcome new students!

Daughter's Choice Tea

The ninth annual Daughter's Choice Tea was a tremendous blessing to more than 80 ladies, ages 8 to 80! On May 7, 2016, Robin Foutz shared with us her family's journey through dark times. She told us of her family's struggles through the injury of a beloved son, and proclaimed that God's light shines the brightest in times of Darkness.

Our thanks go out to all of our table hostesses who provided us with delicious deserts and beautifully decorated tables. The main course was catered by Kim's Kitchen with several other ladies contributed side items. We were graciously served by the gentlemen of the church who were kind enough to serve us, and even handled the washing up!

We are grateful to all mentioned above for their contributions and we are already looking forward to next year!!
